

Like every other year RIB participated in the one month long national event called Ekushey Book Fair, which commemorates the Bengali Language Day now known internationally as the International Mother Language Day. This was RIB's 3rd year of participation. RIB displayed and sold its monographs, books, educational materials worth around Tk. 60,000. This year's special attraction was the easy to read version of the Right to Information Act along with the earlier book of Land Laws Made Easy. Children's story book often used in the Kajoli Centers too were a hot favorite.
